

Exclusion Request Form

What happens if I exclude myself?

If you do not want a payment from this Settlement, but you want to keep the right to sue GCPA about issues in the Litigation, then you must take steps to get out of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will not be entitled to any benefits of the Settlement, but you will not be bound by any judgment in this case.

Unless you exclude yourself from the Settlement, you give up any right to sue for the claims that this Settlement resolves. You must exclude yourself from the Settlement Class to start your own lawsuit or to be part of any different lawsuit relating to the claims in this case. If you exclude yourself, do not submit a Claim Form to ask for a payment.

I request that I be excluded from the Settlement Class in the case of Dekenipp v. Gastroenterology Consultants, P.A. I understand that if I am excluded from the settlement, I will not receive a payment from the settlement. I understand that if I am excluded from the settlement, I will not be bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit.
